

The Canton, OH BCAPL Wednesday 8-Ball League

10/16/2013

Hello Everybody!

Captains will have received Handicap Information in the mail by this Wednesday outlining what it entails. We will be handicapped for the remainder of the year. If you have questions or comments please direct them to Brian or me - - we know and understand the logic behind what we are doing with the handicap. Though we are using BCAPL LeagSys which computes the basic numbers, we have decided upon some things as well. Brian has a strong Math background while I have some Statistics, both undergrad and graduate level. We know a little about what we are doing! Lol Not every person will like or agree with our system, but it controls for truer Handicap Numbers than those of other leagues. Each league out there has it's own set of rules and management system, and this Handicap System is part of ours. If anybody would like to set up an appointment with a local Statistics Professor and myself, I am willing to do so. Maybe s/he could explain it better to you since s/he "teaches" it.. If you understand our system like we do, you will agree that we are doing it well. There are concessions by the stronger as well as the not as strong players.

Again please direct comments and questions toward Brian or me since we are the ones who know the methods and put it together. Thanks so much! Missy, Brian and John
